

I wanna go home tonight!

Francis Roads

Tune: Early in the Morning
Traditional plantation song

[♩=100] D A A⁷ D

1. Came to - night to play some go, Dun - no why you play so slow,
 2. This jo - se - ki's in the book, Don't sup - pose you e - ver look.
 3. No, my side group can't be killed E - ven when each da - me's filled.
 4. Yeah, your cor - ner's gon - na die, No move makes a se - cond eye.

D A A⁷ D

Hoped for more than just one game, Won - der why you think I came.
It's the simp - lest line I've cho - sen, Dun - no why your arm seems fro - zen.
 Fif - teen mi - nutes on one move, Dun - no what you're trying to prove.
Makes no diff - 'rence if you stare. Pick a stone up; play else - where.

CHORUS:

D A A⁷ D

No more he - si - ta - tion! No more va - cil - la - tion!

D G D A⁷ D

Time for re - sig - na - tion! I wan - na go home to - night!

5. Now you're twenty points behind,
 Dunno why you ain't resigned.
 One point yose everywhere,
 Play at random; I won't care.
6. Bet a dollar to a dime,
 You can't tell it's dame time.
 It don't matter which you choose,
 Any move and still you'll lose.
7. Now we played four hours or more,
 Now they need to lock the door.
 This game's still no end in sight,
 Clear the stones up; say good night.
